

Record Courier Baker
12/2/37

Sunday Hill Mine to Operate, Report Says

Rye Valley—(Special)—This community was saddened last week by the death of Walter Clough who had lived here at various times in the last several years.

Mr. and Mrs. James Griffin and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Lyon spent Thanksgiving day in Emmett, Idaho, with Mr. Lyon's people.

Clarno Colenbaugh of Dixie Creek and Lorraine Smith of Huntington were married in Weiser Wednesday, November 24.

Mrs. C. T. Colenbaugh entertained several at dinner Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Armbruster and Herb Schunke were Saturday visitors with relatives and friends in Sumpter.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Frisco and J. W. Frisco were business callers in Baker Saturday.

MRS. FRISCO IMPROVES

Mr. J. W. Frisco is continuing to improve from her recent illness.

Fred Cosens returned Tuesday evening from Spokane where he had spent a week with his father and stepmother.

Mr. and Mrs. William Justus had several of their children home with them Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Cartwright were in Ontario both Wednesday and Friday of last week.

Barbara Cartwright spent the Thanksgiving holidays at her home.

It is reported that the Sunday Hill mine will begin operations in the near future.

Calif. Mining Journal July 1937

Additional equipment is being installed at the Sunday Hill mine in the Morman Basin district of Malheur county, by the North American Mines Co.. A pump has been installed and shaft sinking will be resumed. The property is owned by W. H. Bohenkamp of La Grande and William Phalen of Rye Valley, Oregon.

Sunday Hill Mine

Calif. Mining Jour., v. 6, no. 11, p. 5, July 1937)

"Additional equipment is being installed at the Sunday Hill mine in the Morman Basin district of Malheur county, by the North American Mines Co. A pump has been installed and shaft sinking will be resumed. The property is owned by W. H. Bohenkamp of La Grande and William Phalen of Rye Valley, Oregon."