

*Company News, Journal
April 15, 1932*

Oregon

It has been announced that the Oroplata Mining Company has suspended dredging operations at Whitney in Baker County, Oregon, and the company's Northwest shovel has been sold. The company had been operating at Granite, Grant County, and La Grande, Union County, Oregon, before locating at Whitney. S. K. Atkinson, Whitney, is president and general manager of the Oroplata concern which has had headquarters at La Grande and which is a subsidiary of the Western Gold Corporation, an Idaho concern also headed by Atkinson.