

Arizona Mining Journal
July 11, 1942

1. Grant
Baker

Oregon

According to reports the first shipment of chrome ore will be made from the Parkerville placers seven miles from Whitney in Baker County, Oregon, in the near future. The ore will be loaded at Whitney. For some time a crew of men has been employed at the property in exploration with hydraulic giants. Work is under the direction of Tony Brandenthaler of Whitney.