

Mining Journal
Spring '43?

W. E. Marrion of Coquille, Oregon, is resuming shipments of manganese from the McAdams property near the Curry-Coos county line east of Langlois and in Curry County. Ore is hauled to the Metals Reserve depot at Coquille. Marrion, who formerly produced manganese ore from a property on the Rogue River in the southern part of Curry County, is leasing from James C. McAdams of Langlois.