

Arthur J. Champion of Prineville, Oregon, is in charge of the Mother Lode, Champion, and other quicksilver mines in the Ochoco district of Crook County near Prineville. The plant at the Mother Lode property has been remodeled and is now ready for production. It is understood that the operating concern is known as the Quicksilver Consolidated Mining Company. The Mother Lode property was worked for some years by Crams, Inc., which leased it in 1937 to the Oregon Almaden Mining Company. M.J. 11/15/40 29
