

Oregon Mining
Journal April
18, 1942

The Pistol River Mining Company, which is developing quicksilver property near Gold Beach in Curry County, Oregon, is planning to make a test run in its new plant. Lon Shannon, who formerly was engineer in charge at the Copper Queen mine at Leland, Oregon, is now directing operations for the Pistol River company's project.
