

Mining Journal

Phoenix, Ariz

Fall '42?

Oregon

An eight-mile access road to the nickel silicate deposits of the Freeport Sulphur Company has been approved and construction will be started immediately. The property is on Nickel Mountain near Riddle, Oregon, in Douglas County and has been under investigation by the Freeport Sulphur Company for the past year. David St. Clair, Box 160, Riddle, Oregon, is in charge of the company's exploratory work in the state.

---

Arizona Mining Journal
RIDDLE
Douglas
July 8, 1942

Oregon

According to reports, exploratory drilling is being started by the Freeport Sulphur Company on a nickel deposit on Nickel Mountain near Riddle in Douglas County, Oregon. The company recently closed its office at Reno, Nevada, and has established headquarters at Grants Pass, Oregon. David St. Clair, Box 190, Grants Pass, is in charge of the work being done in Oregon.