

10/10/40
C. L. Harrison, Maritime Building Seattle, Washington, is operating the Psyche mine in the Greenhorn district of Baker County near Sumpter, Oregon. Five men are employed in the mine with W. C. Fellows, Sumpter, as general manager and consulting engineer. Donald Kempfer of Unity is mine superintendent. The property is opened only to a depth of 60 feet. While gold is being produced, there is as yet no regular daily production.

Harrison King

A shipment of high-grade ore was recently made to the Tacoma smelter from the Psyche or Windsor mine in the Greenhorn district of Baker County, Oregon. A shaft is said to have been sunk about 60 feet on the vein from which the ore was extracted. Operations are backed by W. C. Fellows of Baker and C. J. Harrison of Seattle, Washington. Don Kempfer of Baker is in local charge. This property is a portion of the Big Johnny group of claims in which Fellows has been interested for several years.

1/30/40 M.J.

A shaft is being sunk in the Psyche mine in the Greenhorn district of Baker County, Oregon, and a small amount of high-grade ore is being taken out. The property, also known as the Windsor mine, is under the management of W. C. Fellows of Baker. Van E. Halberg of Whitney is the operator. Values are in gold and platinum. A road is being built to the mine. Md 11/15/40

see over