

mining journal Grant Co

The Mining Journal December 15 1937

B. A. Hanks, formerly of Nevada and now of Prairie City, Oregon, is reported to have optioned the Ophir mine in Grant County. The old workings of the property are being cleaned out preparatory to sampling and testing. The property is located on a large porphyry dike on which considerable development work was done some years ago.

Grant, Utah

Grant 5

Mining & Contract. Review Nov. 16 1937

Grant County

B. A. Hanks has started work on his lease at the Ophir mine near Prairie City. The workings are being cleaned out and sampled preparatory to extensive development in the spring.
