

Mining Journal
Phoenix, Ariz.

It is reported that C. W. Biddell of Harney, Oregon, has received a preliminary mine development loan to reopen his property in the Idol City district of Harney County about 31 miles north of Burns. Equipment, including a pump and compressor, has been brought in to unwater the shaft and other workings. Previously operated as a gold mine, the property is being examined now for lead-zinc values.

---