

Mine Operating

GOLD HILL, Oct. 20.—(Special)
—Operations were resumed after two years' shutdown at the Sylvanite Gold Mining company, located on the Sams Valley highway three miles from Gold Hill, on Tuesday of this week. The property has been leased by the Imperial Gold Mining company of Seattle, and J. K. Jackson is engineer in charge. A full crew is expected to be working within a week.