Dear Mr. Nixon:

The name of the purchaser of the Black Channel Mine is James B. Murray, of Rogue River, Oregon. Of course, I presume this is as it often occurs that the name is simply representative of some other person or persons interested.

Thanks for your felicitations.

Yours very truly

L. M. Curl

Dear Mr. Curl:

Thank you kindly for your note of October 13th, advising me that you sold the Black Channel Mine on Foots Creek. I am pleased indeed that you have disposed of the property at a suitable price.

Would you be kind enough to send us for our records the name of the party now in control of the property so that we can contact them from time to time and give them any help or advice necessary in connection with the operation?

Cordially yours,

EKN:vm

Director

Attention Earl K. Nixon

Dear Sir: In re Black Channel Mine Foots Creek.

I am pleased to give you the information that the above property has been sold for a very fair price I think. In fact for the price we have been holding for it.

I do not know whether the sale came about through your agency but I wish to thank you on behalf of all who are interested for the efforts of your department.

Yours very truly

L. M. Carl
