

Gold Mine Closed

JACKSONVILLE, May 16 (Special)—Operations at the Sterling gold mine south of here were stopped this week when a shortage of water made further work impossible. The hydraulic mine operated during the shortest season in recent years, the operators stated.

Although no other hydraulic operations are under way in this district, other types of mining are facing a similar shortage of water and some have already closed down.