

Mining Journal
Fall (Dec.?) '42

Oregon

Installation of a 25-ton chrome mill is under way about 1½ miles east of Grants Pass, Oregon, in the Bloody Run district. Owen Jones and the Baker brothers have moved their gold mining and milling equipment to the property from a gold mine near Redding, California. Besides treating their own ore, custom material will be accepted. Production is expected to be started late in January.