

LaShells Purchases Interest In Mine

823
W. F. LaShells, a former resident of St. Helens, recently purchased an interest in a mine on Josephine Creek near Cave Junction, Oregon, from Jim Nealy.

Mr. LaShells is taking considerable machinery over to the mine, most of which has already been transported to the mine, and the boys expect to start work in the near future, according to an item appearing in the Illinois Valley news.

Josephine