

Oregon Mining Journal

- July 12, 1941.

The Oregon Chrome Mines, Inc., has been incorporated by S. Dilsheimer, 2058 North West Flanders Street, Portland, Oregon and associates to operate Dilsheimer's Oregon Chromite mine. The property is about one mile above Oak Flat on the Illinois River near Selma. Associated in the company is Max Krueger, 4642 North East Halsey Street, Portland.

Illinois River Area
Jas. Co.

(The Estery mine at Waldo has started three pits. The Plataurica, in the same district, has installed a hydraulic elevator.)

Mining Journal
Phoenix, Ariz.

Continued ore shipments are reported from the Oregon Chrome property near Oak Flat on the Illinois River near Selma, Oregon. Ore is delivered to the purchasing depot of the MRC at Grants Pass. The mine, owned by S. Dilsheimer, 2058 North West Flanders Street, Portland, Oregon, is being operated under lease by William Robertson of Galice, Oregon.
