

Dogami

Misc. Sample Data

The Elephant Mountain Mining and Milling Company is employing a 12-man crew to block out ore for next season's production. N. M. Lassen, Junction City, Oregon, is president and George S. Barton, 69 West Broadway, Eugene, is general manager and consulting engineer. James W. Getchell is assistant general manager. The property is owned by the corporation and is equipped with a 25-ton flotation mill, which will be operated soon. Values are in gold, silver, lead, and copper. Both mine and mill offices are at Eugene. Other company officials are Fred H. Getchell, Eugene, secretary and purchasing agent; Albert Anderson, 1302 Columbia Avenue, Eugene, and E. O. Immel, First National

~~"Gilbert's" unpatented~~
~~Musick~~ Group
Hal

Mining & Contract. Review Sept. 28 1937

The Elephant Mountain Mining Co., Eugene, has been incorporated by George S. Barton, Fred H. Getchell, and N. M. Lassen.

Bank Building, Eugene, additional directors. The mine is opened by a 500-foot tunnel and development has been carried to a depth of 425 feet. Plans include the development of ore in other parts of the property.

132 Bureau Street
Bank Building, Eugene, Ore.
Development of ore in other parts of the property.