

Mormon Basin
Malheur

Baker Record Courier
May 2 1940

Pacific Placer Starts Mining

Malheur — (Special) — The Pacific Placer Engineering company started operations at their Basin creek holdings last week.

They have three shifts of four men each employed and a welder and millwright. Operations are in charge of E. A. Seaver, manager, and his son of Glendale, Calif.

This company has leased large holdings in the Basin creek section.