Filing State Lodging Tax Returns

General information

If you collect payment from lodging customers, you are responsible for collecting the tax. You are required to file this return and pay the tax quarterly. To avoid processing delays with your return, do not file more than one return with the same federal employer identification number (FEIN) or Social Security number (SSN), unless you are filing an amended return.

Failure to submit a completed return may increase the time it takes us to process your return and payment, which may result in additional penalty and interest being added to any amount you owe.

Form instructions

Name. Use your name if your rental income is reported on your 1040 as Schedule E rental income or on Schedule C as a sole proprietor or LLC and file under your social security number.

If your rental income is on a corporate or partnership return, you should file under the business Federal Employers Identification Number (FEIN) even if you get a K-1 and report the income on your Schedule E.

DBA/ABN. If you're doing business under a different name than the name above, enter that name in this box.

FEIN. This is a nine-digit number assigned by the IRS. Enter your FEIN in this box.

SSN. Use your SSN, if your name is on this return and your rental income is reported on Schedule E as rental income or Schedule C as a business.

Business identification number (BIN). This is a unique identification number issued by us prior to December 31, 2016. (We no longer issue BINs for state lodging tax.)

First time filers

Select whether this is a new business or a successor to a previously existing business. If this is a successor to a previously existing business, enter the name, FEIN, and BIN of the previous business in the space provided.

Final filers

Select whether this business is closed, has been sold, merged or reorganized, or will be operated exclusively by a managing agent. Enter the date that the closure or change in ownership/management became effective in the space provided. If this business has been sold, merged or reorganized, or will be operated exclusively by a managing agent, enter the name and FEIN of the new business or managing agent.

Line instructions

You must complete lines 1–3 for each region in which you are reporting income and paying tax. To determine the region in which a specific property is located visit us at www.oregon.gov/dor/business. Look for the ZIP code/region directory.

Enter exact amounts, including cents. Do not round entries to the nearest dollar.

Complete the “Total” section to determine your tax liability for all regions.

Line 1. Gross lodging receipts are all amounts received, including all non-optional fees, other than taxes that are paid for lodging in Oregon. This includes any amount collected for a stay that ended in this quarter.

Reductions to gross receipts

Line 2a. Long term or monthly lodging: Enter gross receipts received from long term or monthly lodgers. Also, include gross receipts received for units that were used less than 30 days per year.

- Long term lodging. A unit that is occupied by the same person or company for a consecutive period of 30 days or more. This requirement is satisfied even if the physical unit changes, but is within the same facility and charges are paid by the same person or company throughout the consecutive period.
- Monthly lodging. Lodging that is paid for on a monthly basis, regardless of the number of days in such month.

Line 2b. Federal employees on business and federal instrumentalities: Enter the gross receipts received for federal employees on business, from federal instrumentalities, or from individuals with diplomatic immunity.

- Federal employees. Employees of the federal government and federal instrumentalities, traveling on official business, are exempt from the state lodging tax.
- Federal instrumentalities. Example: The Red Cross contracts with several lodging facilities to provide temporary emergency housing for victims of disasters. Because the Red Cross is a federal instrumentality, these units aren't subject to the state lodging tax.

Line 2c. Gross receipts from transient lodging intermediaries (complete Schedule OR-SLT-1): Enter the amount that you actually received from intermediaries during the quarter. Don't include:

- Transactions for which you collected the tax directly from customers; or
- Transactions for which you received the tax from intermediaries.

You must enter the gross receipts from transactions with intermediaries separately for each region on line 2c. However, you'll only need to report the total amount received from each intermediary on Schedule OR-SLT-1, regardless of the number of regions for which you are reporting income and paying tax.
