

Instructions for Schedule OSMP, Oregon Special Marital Property for Form OR706

Use this schedule for estates making an Oregon Special Marital Property (OSMP) election under Oregon Revised Statutes (ORS) 118.013 and 118.016.

Do not file this schedule if the marital trust document states that no one other than the surviving spouse will benefit from the marital property.

The Oregon Special Marital Property (OSMP) election is an election made by the estate executor.

This election is irrevocable.

Complete this schedule if there is a difference between your federal and state marital deduction and you want to reduce the Oregon estate transfer tax debt.

Does the trust or other property interest allow distributions to persons other than the surviving spouse? If yes, the executor may choose a share of the trust or other property interest for the benefit of the surviving spouse as OSMP.

The surviving spouse and each permissible distributee must have their signatures notarized. A permissible distributee is a beneficiary who's currently eligible to receive distributions of trust income or principal, whether the distribution is mandatory or discretionary (ORS 130.010). The election and consent form, Consent to Establishment of Oregon Special Marital Property, is provided below.

Unless the executor identifies a fractional portion or percentage of the trust or other property for this election, the executor is deemed to have made an OSMP election on the entire trust or other property.
