Farm Liquidation Long-Term Capital Gain Tax (ORS 316.045)

You may qualify for the farm capital gain reduced tax rate if you sold or exchanged capital assets used in farming activities. The sale or exchange must end all of your ownership interests in a farming business, or stop all of your ownership interests in property that is used in a farming business. If you have a net loss from the sale or exchange from all types of assets during the year, you won't qualify for the farm liquidation reduced rate on the sale of farm assets.

Farming activities include:

- Raising, harvesting, and selling crops.
- Feeding, breeding, managing, or selling livestock, poultry, fur-bearing animals, honeybees, or the produce thereof.
- Dairying and selling dairy products.
- Stabling or training equines, including providing riding lessons, training clinics, and schooling shows.
- Breeding, growing, maintaining, or harvesting aquatic species, birds, and other animal species.
- Growing and harvesting cultured Christmas trees or certain hardwood timber.
- On-site constructing and maintaining equipment and facilities used in farming activities.
- Preparing, storing, or disposing of products or by-products raised for human or animal use on land employed in farming activities.
- Any other agricultural or horticultural activity, animal husbandry, or any combination of these three.

Farming activities don't include growing and harvesting trees of a marketable species other than growing and harvesting cultured Christmas trees or certain hardwood timber.

You may not claim the farm capital gain reduced tax rate on a sale or exchange to a relative, as defined under Internal Revenue Code Section 267. A farm dwelling or farm home site isn't considered to be property used in the trade or business of farming.

Partnerships or S corporations owners. The sale of ownership interests in a farming corporation, partnership, or other entity qualify for the farm capital gain reduced tax rate. The taxpayer must have had at least a 10 percent ownership interest in the entity before the sale or exchange.
