Presented by Jennifer Howald

Jennifer Howald presented that the Oregon Administrative Rule 259-008-0070 (Denial/Revocation) establishes the Board on Public Safety Standards and Training’s moral fitness standards for the criminal justice disciplines. The current standards were reviewed extensively by the Criminal Justice Denial/Revocation Workgroup which met throughout 2016. The workgroup’s recommendations were presented to the Telecommunications, Corrections, and Police Policy Committee and the Board for review and consideration.

The recommendations for this proposed rule change were discussed at length during the Telecommunication Policy Committee (November 2, 2016), Corrections Policy Committee (November 8, 2016), the Police Policy Committee (November 17, 2016). Each of these groups unanimously recommended the Board approve the language as proposed with minor housekeeping changes. The Board of Public Safety Standards and Training unanimously affirmed the recommendations at their meeting on January 26, 2017 along with one additional housekeeping change.

Three comments were received. DPSST staff reviewed the comments and determined that only one of the comments received included comments related to the rule’s substantive goals. All three comments were presented to the Telecommunication Policy Committee for review.

After considering the comments received regarding the proposed rule changes Sherry Bensema moved to recommend filing the draft rule language for OARs 259-008-0005, 259-008-0010, 259-008-0011, 259-008-0070 and 259-008-0080 as a permanent rule without any changes to the proposed language, thereby maintaining the intent of the recommendation of the Criminal Justice Denial/Revocation Workgroup. Mike Moran seconded the motion. The motion carried unanimously.

5. Department Update:

Linsay Hale reported:

- Linsay introduced Marsha Morin as the newly hired Criminal Justice Certification Program Manager.

- Legislative Session
  Linsay reported that all three Board-approved bills are expected to have their third reading soon and then will be passed to the Governor for signature. The bills include:
  - Granting the Board the authority to immediately suspend the certification of armed private security provider for a failure to complete annual training; which includes the marksmanship training.
  - Addition of a public member to all of the policy committees
  - The Board-approve housekeeping bill clarifying DPSST’s fingerprinting authorities

- There are several new OARS’ that could potentially impact the Telecommunication/EMD dispatch disciplines. The Criminal Justice Denial Revocation Standard will have an impact on the reviewing of applications and subsequent training certifications as well as how public safety professional misconduct is handled in the future.

- The Tele/EMD Maintenance update was approved by the Board and will be opening for public comment in June. If comments are received they will be introduced to the Telecommunication Policy Committee for consideration.

- The adjustment requirement for Supervisory Certification has been filed permanently with an effective date of July 1st which will remove the education requirement when applying for certification.
• Effective May 1st all Personnel Action Forms must be signed by either a Department Head or Certified DPSST individual. This will ensure that the separations of public safety professionals are being reported to DPSST appropriately.

• Effective April 1st, the requirement will be in effect to have all certified individuals report to DPSST any arrest or criminal citation. This requirement replaces a previous requirement when an individual was required to report a conviction to their employer and then the employer would report it to DPSST.

• The Professional Standards Workshop conference has been scheduled for June 7th. The intent of the conference is to share all of the changes that take place at the agency and DPSST’s regulatory side in regards to forms, rule updates, and different requirements. The Conference is geared towards administrative staff, training officers and others that deal with DPSST on a regular basis.

• The Information Request Inquiry System (IRIS) which is the online system that provides training records for individuals has been expanded to provide certification information as well. This will allow an individual to review the status of their certification and applications for certification. This information will be updated on a daily basis and will also be provide a resource for individuals to whose application is incomplete.

Eriks reported:

• The Basic Telecommunications course that was approved at the last Telecommunications Policy Committee was approved by the Board, which gives staff the ability to make implementations to the course when it has been developed. The process will include building the framework as well as DPSST will be working with the Oregon Emergency Management. The projected time frame for completion is approximately one year.

• Eriks thanked Kelly Dutra for speaking at the last Basic Telecommunications graduation. She presented an informative message to the class and did a wonderful job.

• DPSST has not seen a slowdown in the amount of hirings and retirement for Telecommunications. We are very fortunate to be able to work with OEM which has allowed the academy to add more Telecommunications classes. The next biennium will reflect the new class size which has been increased to 32.
• Mental Health workgroup completed their assessment that included the Chiefs and Sheriff’s as well as 911 was part of the discussion. The partnership with APCO NENA will continue which includes grant fund to delivering specific mental health/crisis intervention classes to 911 operators. There are three classes scheduled within the next two months around the state.

• With regard to the Active Shooter Curriculum, one of the areas that has been modified based on the feedback from 911 individuals coming out of training, is that a new training has been implemented that involves the fifth or ninth responding officer will be establish as command. This would involve all ranks and could potentially include other agencies at one given time.

• Eriks reported that Mike Leloff has done a great job since taking over as the Division Training Director. He has individually met with the training divisions and personnel as well as meeting with our stake holders. One area that Mike will be focusing on is determining where the Academy needs to be currently and for the future. As well as how we manage the students, and recognizing that the students do not work for DPSST rather they are here for training. We are making some changes related to the structure and we will keep our constituents updated.

• Career day was hosted here at DPSST last month. The numbers were lower than the previous year but the overall response caliber was significantly up from previously.

• The Fallen Officer Memorial was held May 2, 2017 here at the Academy for 183 men and women that have lost their lives in the line of duty. Sergeant Jason Gooding from Seaside Police Department was honored at yesterday’s ceremony.

• Eriks reported that this meeting will be Justin Hardwick’s last meeting. Justin has brought a lot of enthusiasm to the Telecommunication Policy Committee and has brought much insight from the State EMS office. Eriks thanked Justin for volunteering his time and hard work.

Mike Leloff presented:
