Guide to Certification

NFPA 1035 Task Force Information

DPSST hosted the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) 1035 Standard for Professional Qualifications for Fire & Life Safety Educator, NFPA Public Information Officer, NFPA Youth Firesetter Intervention Specialist and NFPA Youth Firesetter Program Task Force. The Task Force met on the afternoon of August 9, 2017 to discuss all standards included within 1035 and how their updates will affect the Oregon fire service if adopted. The Task Force evaluated the currently adopted 2010 Edition and compared it to the 2015 Edition. As a result of their work, the Task Force established the importance of the Oregon fire service maintaining the most current standards available from the NFPA.

Explanation of NFPA 1035 Standard Updates

The NFPA updates were minimal with some minor semantical changes, few job performance requirement additions, and a title change from Juvenile Firesetter Intervention Specialist I and II to Youth Firesetter Intervention Specialist and Youth Firesetter Program Manager. The Task Force determined it would be in the best interest of the Oregon fire service to adopt the updated standard. Please see attached comparison for contrast of the two standards.

Task Book Information

Task Book Qualification Record Books (Task Book) have been developed for various certification levels within the DPSST system. Each Task Book lists the Job Performance Requirements (JPRs) for the specific certification level in a format that allows a candidate to be trained and evaluated during one (1) to three (3) sequential sessions, depending on the number of boxes corresponding to each JPR. Successful performance of all tasks, as observed and recorded by a qualified and approved evaluator will result in the candidate’s eligibility for DPSST certification.

To become certified at a specific level, the applicant must successfully complete the job performance requirements in sequence. Before a job performance evaluation can be taken, all requisite knowledge and skills must be satisfied. In addition, all relative task book evaluations must be checked off by the evaluator. When all prescribed requirements have been met, an application for certification will be forwarded to DPSST. As always, only an individual actively certified in that specialty area may sign off on the Task Book.

For an example and further explanation of Task Book requirements, please see the following page.
4.2.2 Document the routine tests, inspections, and servicing functions, given maintenance and inspection forms, so that all items are checked for operation and deficiencies are reported.

These skills are the job performance evaluations intended to be completed after the Requisite Knowledge and Requisite Skills have been successfully finished. This section should accomplished during three separate dates at the firefighter’s home department or, if no one at the home department is certified to sign off on the skills, at a neighboring department.

(A) Requisite Knowledge. Departmental requirements for documenting maintenance performed and the importance of keeping accurate records.

The Requisite Knowledge portions of the task book may be done during class and signed off by the instructor. Requisite Knowledge are the only JPR’s that are indented to be signed off in class.

(B) Requisite Skills. The ability to use tools and equipment and complete all related departmental forms.

Requisite Skills are intended to be completed at the firefighter’s home department or, if no one at the home department is certified to sign off on the skills, at a neighboring department.
