

Horst Rech

Springfield Department of Fire and Life Safety

Date of Death: September 21, 1978

On his second entry into the structure, Captain Rech apparently became disoriented and was separated from other crew members. The fire at DJ's Market on Main Street drove other crew members out of the building, and they were unable to reach him. The ceiling collapsed and Captain Rech perished in the fire.

