5Moral Fitness

Oregon Revised Statutes (ORS) and Oregon Administrative Rules (OAR) require all private investigator applicants uphold the core values established by the Board of Public Safety Standards and Training and be of good moral fitness as determined by a criminal background check, department investigation or other reliable sources. Lack of good moral fitness includes, but is not limited to, mandatory or discretionary disqualifying misconduct as described in OAR 259-061-0300(2).

ORS 703.425(3) requires all applicants must disclose any acts constituting grounds for denial of an investigator's license and must notify the department if the applicant is charged with a criminal offense. The department shall conduct a special review of any applicant making a disclosure.

If you answer yes to any of the below questions, attach an explanation and provide date, location, and nature of offense.

- 1) Has a certification or license in any other occupation or professional capacity issued in your name in any state or by the federal government ever been refused, suspended, revoked or restricted OR have you ever voluntarily relinquished a certification/license?
 YES NO
- 2) Have you had any action taken against any state issued certificate/license or are you currently being investigated regarding any state issued certificate/license – including DPSST?
 YES NO
- 3) Have you ever been investigated, required to appear before or been sanctioned by any professional body or federal or state agency for alleged misconduct – including DPSST?
 YES NO
- 4) Have you had an investigator license in another state?
 YES NO State(s) _____ Year(s) _____
- 5) Have you ever been convicted of, arrested OR is there any action pending against you for any criminal offense?
 YES NO
- 6) Have you ever committed an act that would be considered a violation of one of the five core values outlined in OAR 259-061-0020 and OAR 259-061-0300? (Dishonest, failure to strive for justice, lack of public trust, lack of respect for the law of this state or nation)
 YES NO
- 7) Have you ever been the subject of a lawsuit, arbitration, mediation, or disciplinary action regarding your investigative activities?
 YES NO

6Signature of Applicant

The information contained in this application is true and correct to the best of my knowledge. I understand that falsification of any documents submitted to the department may be cause for denial or revocation of licensure under OAR 259-061-0300, and subject to a civil penalty under OAR 259-061-0200. I further understand that the information provided in this application will be used to conduct a background investigation.

Investigator Code of Ethics

As an Investigator, I swear or affirm that I will, at all times, demonstrate the core values that are integral to the field of private investigation as follows:

- Character. Good character includes being respectful and courteous, being faithful and diligent, using discretion, demonstrating compassion and exhibiting courage;
- Honesty. Honesty includes integrity, credibility, acting honorably, adhering to the facts and maintaining confidences;
- Striving for Justice. Striving for justice includes just treatment, the quality or characteristics of being just, fair and non-discriminatory;
- Public Trust. Public trust includes maintaining public confidences, being law-abiding and adhering to recognized industry standards; and
- Respect for the laws and constitutions of this state and nation

[OAR 259-061-0040]

I will:

- Obey all laws in the pursuit of an investigation;
- Abide by all provisions of ORS chapter 703 and OAR chapter 259, Division 061 as they relate to licensed investigators;
- Never permit personal feelings, prejudices, political beliefs, aspirations, animosities or friendships to influence my professional decisions;
- Never compromise and will relentlessly perform my duties in accordance with the law, courteously and appropriately, without fear or favor, malice or ill-will;
- Maintain each client's confidentiality within the limits of the law;
- Accept sole responsibility for my individual standard of professional performance and actions, taking every reasonable opportunity to enhance and improve my level of knowledge, competence, and professional integrity;
- Actively seek and report the truth in the performance of my professional duties;
- Be above reproach in the financial aspects of my relationships with clients;
- Abide by the terms of agreements made with my clients to the best of my ability;
- Recognize that the credential of a licensed investigator is a symbol of public trust, to be held only so long as I am true to the ethics of the investigative profession.

As an investigator I recognize that I am bound to this code of ethics and will constantly strive to maintain them, dedicating myself to my chosen profession.
