Private Security Provider Code of Ethics

I swear or affirm that as a Private Security Provider, my fundamental duty is to protect the interest of my employer, client and/or industry. As a private security provider I recognize that I am bound to the core values specific to my discipline.

I acknowledge that Honesty is a core value that includes integrity, credibility, acting honorably and maintaining confidences. I acknowledge that a lack of honesty includes untruthfulness, dishonesty by admission or omission, deception, misrepresentation or falsification, and from these I will abstain.

I acknowledge that Good Character is a core value that includes being respectful and courteous, being faithful, diligent and loyal to the employer's charge, and using discretion, demonstrating compassion, and exhibiting courage.

I acknowledge that Fair Treatment of Others is a core value that includes treating others equitably, exercising good judgment and not being discriminatory against others.

I acknowledge that Public Trust is a core value which includes maintaining the public confidence by being law abiding and adhering to recognized private security industry standards.

I acknowledge that Respect for the Laws of this State and Nation is a core value.

I will constantly strive to maintain these core values, dedicating myself to my chosen profession.
