

Oregon Department of State Lands: Rulemaking Calendar (2025)

Oregon Administrative Rules determine how the Department of State Lands (DSL) and other state agencies operate, including how they interpret and implement state laws. Administrative rules can also describe agency practices and policies. Rules may be adopted, amended, repealed, suspended, or renumbered through a process known as rulemaking.

This calendar is a forecast of DSL rulemaking activities planned for 2025 and subject to change. Visit our website for detailed information including: rulemaking materials, dates of advisory committee meetings and public hearings, and project statuses.
