

News

NEWS RELEASE – for immediate release

Media Contact: Ali Ryan Hansen, 503-510-6860, ali.r.hansen@state.or.us

Sept. 21, 2020

The Elliott State Forest is now open

Fire danger remains high – campfires and other uses are prohibited

The Elliott State Forest has re-opened, effective immediately.

Fire danger remains high in the Elliott State Forest. Visitors to the Elliott are reminded to do their part to prevent fires by following public use restrictions. No campfires are allowed. Vehicles must remain on improved roads. Smoking is prohibited. Review fire danger levels and additional use restrictions on the Coos Forest Protective Association website before visiting.

South Slough National Estuarine Research Reserve trails have also re-opened, effective immediately. Learn more.

###

www.oregon.gov/dsl