

Log Obstruction in Winchester Creek

Two large logs have recently drifted from Dalton Marsh and become lodged across Winchester Creek, just north of Hinch Bridge. South Slough Reserve staff are working to relocate this obstruction. Please use caution in the area, as the logs may shift with the tides.

Thank you for your patience as we work to meet regulatory requirements, protect important fish habitat, and maintain safe, accessible conditions for visitors along Winchester Creek.

<https://www.oregon.gov/dsl/ss/pages/default.aspx>

