RULE TITLE: Wages: Incidental Expenses

NOTICE FILED DATE: 10/29/2021

RULE SUMMARY: Clarifies that incidental expenses of employees are not wages as defined in ORS 657B.010(26) for the Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance program and clarifies record keeping requirements for such expenses.

RULE TEXT:

(1) Wages do not include:

- (a) Moneys paid to employees to reimburse them for meal expenses in the event employees are required to perform work after their regular office hours; and
- (b) Amounts paid to employees to reimburse them for traveling or other expenses actually incurred by them while performing service for the employer.

(2) No deduction may be made under this section unless an accurate and detailed expense account is prepared by or with the knowledge of the employee and submitted to the employer in such form as will meet the requirements of the Internal Revenue Service and unless such account is preserved by the employer for a period of three calendar years.

RULE TITLE: Wages: Remuneration Other than Cash

NOTICE FILED DATE: 10/29/2021

RULE SUMMARY: Clarifies that remuneration other than cash is considered wages as defined in ORS 657B.010(26) for the Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance program, except for agricultural labor, domestic service, and other specified exemptions. Specifies how the cash value of such payments is determined.

RULE TEXT:

(1) Subject to the provisions of section (2) of this rule, wages include the cash value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash, except for agricultural labor and domestic service, as defined in the wage definition administrative rule, and the specific exemptions enumerated in ORS 657.115 through 657.140.

(2) Board, lodging, services, facilities or privileges furnished by an employer shall be considered remuneration paid for services performed by an employee unless it appears that furnishing of the same was not required by the terms of the contract of hire; written or oral, express or implied; and that the value thereof was not a material factor in the determination by either party of the amount of any cash remuneration payable for such services.

(3) The cash value of noncash remuneration shall be either:

(a) The amount of noncash remuneration which is carried on the employer's payroll, provided such amount is comparable to values prevailing in the community; or

(b) An amount determined by the director when the value of non-cash remuneration is not carried on the employer's payroll. In such determination, board furnished by an employer as remuneration for services shall have a minimum value of 30 percent of the standard meal per diem rates for the 48 continental United States and the District of Columbia established by the U.S General Services Administration (CONUS meal rate) per day. The rate per day will be rounded to the nearest dollar. The rate per month will be 30 times the rounded daily rate. If room is furnished in addition to board, no additional value will ordinarily be placed upon the room. If room and board are furnished at hotels, resorts or lodges, or if a room only, an apartment, a house or any other consideration is provided, the value for tax purposes will be the fair market value thereof.

NOTICE FILED DATE: 10/29/2021

RULE SUMMARY: Establishes which employees are designated by the director as having the authority to act for and in the name of the director in matters related to Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance.

RULE TEXT:

(1) In accordance with the provisions of ORS 657B.110, the director designates the following employees to have the authority to act for and in the name of the director in matters of reconsideration and correction of any final decision under ORS chapter 657B:

(a) Deputy Director;

(b) Division Director for Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance;

(c) Deputy Division Director for Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance; and

(d) Any employee authorized and directed by individuals identified in paragraphs (a) through (c) of this section who, in the course of their assigned duties, are tasked with the writing, review, and reconsideration or correction of decisions issued by the Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance program.

(2) If the director finds, as new facts not previously known to the director or the designees specified in section (1) of this rule, that a claimant or an employing unit has suffered or would suffer substantial adverse effect because of:

(a) Misinformation provided to such party by an employee of the Employment Department; or

(b) Improper application of Employment Department Law or administrative rules by an employee of the Employment Department, the director, or one of the designees specified in section (1) of this rule, may take appropriate action to restore to the injured party all rights and benefits which were improperly denied.

RULE TITLE: Contributions: Method for Determining Contribution Rate and Maximum Wage Amount

NOTICE FILED DATE: 10/29/2021

RULE SUMMARY: Establishes a method for determining the contribution rate, the period in which the contribution rate will be in effect, and a method for determining the maximum wage amount for the Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance (PFMLI) program. Clarifies the PFMLI contribution rate and maximum wage amount will be announced by the department by November 15 each year for the next calendar year.

RULE TEXT:

(1) The department shall determine the Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance (PFMLI) contribution rate on an annual basis. Using current and actual data as well as projections, the factors the department considers in determining the rate include, but are not limited to:

- (a) PFMLI Trust Fund balance on August 31 of each year;
 - (b) Estimated number of Oregon employees and their estimated PFMLI subject wages;
 - (c) Estimated number of employers that employ on average 25 or more employees, as described in OAR 471-070-3160;
 - (d) Estimated number of employers that employ on average fewer than 25 employees, as described in OAR 471-070-3160, and the estimated number of those employers that commit to pay the employer contributions in accordance with OAR 471-070-3750;
 - (e) Estimated number of tribal governments electing coverage under ORS 657B.130(4) and the estimated number of employees employed by tribal governments that have elected coverage;
 - (f) Estimated number of self-employed individuals electing coverage under ORS 657B.130;
 - (g) Maximum wage amount;
 - (h) Average weekly wage as defined in ORS 657B.010(2);
 - (i) Estimated revenue that will be deposited into the PFMLI Trust Fund through the end of the next calendar year, including projections of:
 - (A) Contributions paid;
 - (B) Penalties and interest paid;
 - (C) Equivalent plan application fees paid; and
 - (D) Interest accrued on the PFMLI Trust Fund;
 - (j) Estimated expenditures from the PFMLI Trust Fund through the end of the next calendar year, including projections on:
 - (A) Benefits paid;
 - (B) Administrative costs;
 - (C) Assistance grants paid; and
 - (D) Amount reimbursed to the General Fund.
- (2) For purposes of determining the contribution rate, estimates will include consideration of Oregon PFMLI program data and other relevant data sources, including but not limited to, other Oregon state agencies, other states' agencies, and federal agencies.
- (3) Beginning with calendar year 2024, the maximum wage amount will be adjusted by the annual percentage increase (if any) in the August Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers, West Region (All Items) as published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor.
- (4) The director shall announce the contribution rate and maximum wage amount by November 15 each year, effective for the following calendar year.

RULE TITLE: Contributions: Maximum Wage Amount

NOTICE FILED DATE: 10/29/2021

RULE SUMMARY: Clarifies how the Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance (PFMLI) maximum wage amount will be applied for employees with multiple employers. If an employee works for multiple employers, each employer will collect PFMLI contributions on the employees' wages paid while working for them.

RULE TEXT:

- (1) Wages are subject to contributions up to the maximum wage amount paid per employer each calendar year.
- (2) If an employee works for multiple employers, each employer must:
 - (a) Withhold and remit employee contributions for wages paid up to the maximum wage amount paid by the employer;
 - and
 - (b) Pay employer contributions on wages paid up to the maximum wage amount paid by the employer, when applicable.

Example 1: An engineer works for a hotel chain from January to August 2026 and earns $130,000. The hotel chain will withhold and remit employee contributions and pays employer contributions on the engineer's total wages of $130,000. The engineer then works for a school district from September to December 2026 and earns $60,000. The school district will withhold and remit employee contributions and pays employer contributions on the engineer's total wages of $60,000, without consideration of previous wages paid by the hotel chain.

Example 2: An attorney works full-time for a law firm and part-time for a marketing company throughout 2023. The maximum wage amount for 2023 is $132,900. The attorney earns $165,000 from the law firm. The law firm will withhold and remit employee contributions and pays employer contributions on the first $132,900 of the attorney's wages. After contributions are withheld and paid on $132,900 of wages, the law firm stops withholding and paying contributions on the attorney's wages. The attorney earns $40,000 wages from the marketing company. The marketing company will withhold and remit employee contributions and pays employer contributions on the attorney's earnings of $40,000, without consideration of the wages paid by the law firm throughout the year.

RULE TITLE: Contributions: Wage Reporting and Contribution Payments

NOTICE FILED DATE: 10/29/2021

RULE SUMMARY: Clarifies the timing of Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance (PFMLI) Oregon Quarterly Tax Report reporting for all employers and establishes that certain domestic employers may file annually. All PFMLI contributions are collected through a payroll tax shared by employees and employers. This rule informs employers on their reporting and payment requirements due quarterly on or before the last day of the month following the close of the calendar quarter, unless a domestic employer with less than 25 employees you can report and pay annually by January 31st. Employers that fail to pay timely PFMLI contributions are considered delinquent and could have penalties imposed.

RULE TEXT:

- (1) Employers must file quarterly on the Oregon Quarterly Tax Report detailing the Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance (PFMLI) portion all PFMLI subject wages, the employee count, and employee and employer PFMLI contributions due, except those employers listed in section (2) of this rule and in OAR 471-070-2030. The Oregon Quarterly Tax Report is due on or before the last day of the month following the close of the calendar quarter.
- (2) In addition to the Oregon Quarterly Tax Report as provided in section (1) and the contribution payments in section (4) of this rule, each employer shall file an Oregon Employee Detail Report that includes PFMLI subject wages and other reports as may be required by the department and ORS 316.168.
- (3) Domestic employers may file an Oregon Annual Report detailing the PFMLI subject wages and employee PFMLI contributions due if they have on average less than 25 employees as calculated under OAR 471-070-3150. The Oregon Annual Report is due on or before the last day of January of the following year.
- (4) An employer may, with the director's approval, substitute Electronic Data Processing (EDP) medium for the reports required in section (1) through (3) of this rule. The employer's quarterly report of employees' PFMLI wages and other reports as may be required must be attached to or filed with the substitute EDP medium. All reports must be legible and complete as to the information required by this rule and the instructions associated with the report forms. Any report may be returned to the employer if improperly prepared, incomplete, or illegible and such employer shall be deemed to have failed to file reports for PFMLI as required by this rule and shall be subject to the penalties in ORS 657B.910 and OAR 471-070-8520.
- (5) If an employer fails to file the reports required in sections (1) through (3) of this rule, the director will estimate the PFMLI subject wages and contributions due based on all information available to the department, including but not limited to, the wage information reported for Unemployment Insurance.
- (6) Contribution payments are due quarterly and payable for each calendar quarter with respect to PFMLI wages paid within that calendar quarter unless specified otherwise under section (7) of this rule. Quarterly contributions are due and payable on or before the last day of the month following the close of the calendar quarter.
- (7) Contribution payments, from domestic employers who file annually, are payable for each calendar year with respect to wages paid within that calendar year. Annual contributions shall be due and payable on or before the last day of January of the following year.
- (8) When the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday, the report and payment is due on the next business day following the due date.
- (9) If an employer ceases to exist; discontinues operations or business; or sells out, exchanges or otherwise disposes of the business or substantially all of its assets, any contribution payable under this section is immediately due and payable, and the employer shall pay the contributions due within 10 calendar days.
- (10) An employer who fails to pay timely contributions as required by sections (6) or (7) of this rule is delinquent. If a delinquency continues following the issuance of a notice of delinquency to the employer's last known address or electronically when permitted, if the employer has opted for electronic notification, as shown in the department's records the department may require the employer to report and pay contributions on a monthly basis until all delinquent contributions have been paid in full, along with any currently due contributions, and the employer receives approval to begin making quarterly reports and pay contributions as provided in this rule.

(11) If an employer is required to pay contributions monthly, the monthly contributions are due on or before the last day of the month following the month for which the contributions are payable. If the contributions are not paid by the due date, the employer is delinquent.

(12) Any employer that is delinquent in the payment of contributions as provided in this rule is subject to the penalties as specified in ORS 657B.320, and further may be assessed an additional penalty as provided in ORS 657B.910.

(13) Employers are responsible for the payment of penalties for delinquent contributions. Employers are prohibited from withholding funds from employees for the purposes of paying penalties or applying employee contributions toward the payment of penalties.

(14) The date of receipt of contributions or reports transmitted through the mail or private express carrier shall be determined as provided in ORS 293.660. The date of receipt shall be used in the calculation of interest charges, delinquencies, penalties, or other sanctions provided by law.

RULE TITLE: Contributions: Application of Payments

NOTICE FILED DATE: 10/29/2021

RULE SUMMARY: Establishes the order in which "designated payments" and "undesignated payments" made to the Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance (PFMLI) Division are applied. In general, the payments will be applied to legal fees, penalties, interest, and then PFMLI contributions.

RULE TEXT:

- (1) "Designated payments" are payments received by the department specifying a specific quarter(s) or distraint warrant.
- (2) "Undesignated payments" are payments received by the department that are not specified for a specific quarter(s) or distraint warrant.
- (3) Except as otherwise provided by statute, or as directed by a court of competent jurisdiction, payments made to the department by or on behalf of an employer for Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance (PFMLI) contributions; and legal fees (as defined in OAR 471-070-3000), penalties and interest related to those PFMLI contributions; in accordance with the provisions of ORS chapter 657B shall be identified by the department as either "Designated Payments" or "Undesignated Payments" and will be credited to the employer's account in the following order of priority:
 - (a) Undesignated Payments:
 - (A) To the oldest unwarranted unpaid quarter balance in the following order:
 - (i) Penalties;
 - (ii) Interest; and then
 - (iii) PFMLI Contributions.
 - (B) After the payment amounts under subsection (a)(A) of this rule have been applied, any remaining amounts shall then be credited to the most recent unpaid distraint warrant in the following order:
 - (i) Legal Fees;
 - (ii) Penalties;
 - (iii) Interest; and then
 - (iv) PFMLI Contributions.
 - (b) Designated Payments:
 - (A) Legal Fees;
 - (B) Penalties;
 - (C) Interest; and then
 - (D) PFMLI Contributions.
- (4) The department may identify categories of indebtedness for internal accounting procedures and may retire each category separately in the order of priority set forth in section (3) of this rule.
- (5) Nothing in this rule shall be construed in any way as abridging or limiting the authority or powers of the director granted under ORS chapter 657B.
- (6) The employees listed in OAR 471-070-0550 may act on behalf of the director for purposes of sections (4) and (5) of this rule.
- (7) Notwithstanding any instructions to the contrary by or on behalf of the employer, payments will be applied in the manner specified in this rule.
- (8) Credit balances will be treated as payments for purposes of this rule.

RULE TITLE: Contributions: Deposit, Bond, or Letter of Credit

NOTICE FILED DATE: 10/29/2021

RULE SUMMARY: Clarifies that, under certain circumstances, the Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance Director, or an authorized representative, may demand from an employer a deposit, bond, or an irrevocable letter of credit issued by an insured institution.

RULE TEXT:

(1) For the purposes of ORS 657B.190, the director or an authorized representative may require a deposit, bond or an irrevocable letter of credit issued by an insured institution, as defined in ORS 706.008, when the director or an authorized representative finds it necessary for the protection of the Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance (PFMLI) Fund established under ORS 657B.430.

(2) The determination that a deposit, bond or irrevocable letter of credit is necessary is in the director or an authorized representative's sole discretion. Circumstances that will require a deposit, bond or irrevocable letter of credit include, but are not limited to, circumstances where an employer who currently employs employees subject to ORS chapter 657B:

- (a) Is currently delinquent in filing PFMLI reports or payment of PFMLI contributions; or
- (b) Was previously delinquent in filing PFMLI reports or payment of PFMLI contributions.

RULE TITLE: Compromise of Amount Due

NOTICE FILED DATE: 10/29/2021

RULE SUMMARY: Clarifies the director of the Oregon Employment Department may, in certain circumstances, agree to compromise with employers and former employers on the amount of Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance contributions the employer owes to the department.

RULE TEXT:

It shall be the policy of the director to compromise the amount due from an employer or former employer with a delinquent account pursuant to the provisions of ORS 657B.320(8) where it appears that such action would be in the best interests of all parties involved and the statutory criteria for a settlement have been met.

RULE TITLE: One-Percent Penalty

NOTICE FILED DATE: 10/29/2021

RULE SUMMARY: Clarifies when the one-percent penalty will be applied and the right of the employer to request a waiver of the penalty for the Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance program. The penalty will be assessed if an employer has failed to file or complete all required reports and pay all required contributions by October 20 for the calendar year. Clarifies the appeal options if a penalty is imposed.

RULE TEXT:

- (1) If an employer has failed to file or complete all required reports or pay all required contributions for the calendar year as described in 471-070-3030, the department shall assess the penalty authorized by ORS 657B.910 on the Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance (PFMLI) subject wages. The department shall send notice of the assessment of such penalty to the employer's last known address or electronically when permitted, if the employer has opted for electronic notification, as shown in the department's records on or before October 20 of the year. The penalty shall become final on November 10 immediately following the assessment.
- (2) On or after the date of the assessment, but prior to November 10 immediately following the assessment, the employer may request waiver of the penalty based on good cause as defined in OAR 4710708530.
- (3) If an employer makes a request for waiver of the penalty within the time prescribed in section (2) of this rule, the department shall make a decision, either granting or denying the waiver, and mail notice of the decision to the employer's last known address or electronically when permitted, if the employer has opted for electronic notification, as shown in the department's records. If, prior to November 10 immediately following the assessment, the department determines that the employer had good cause for the failure to file all reports or pay all contributions due by September 1, the department shall grant the request for waiver and remove the penalty from the employer's account. If the employer fails to establish good cause prior to November 10 immediately following the assessment, the department shall deny the request for waiver. If the request for waiver is denied, the department shall notify the employer that a request for a contested case hearing may be filed within 20 days after the date that the penalty waiver decision is sent to the employer.
- (4) Hearings held and administrative law judge decisions issued pursuant to section (3) of this rule shall be in accordance with the provisions of chapter 137, division 3 of the Oregon Administrative Rules that have been adopted for the PFMLI program.
- (5) Judicial review of administrative law judge decisions issued pursuant to this rule shall be as provided for review of orders in contested cases under ORS 183.310 through 183.550. The director is designated as a party for purposes of hearings under this rule.
- (6) Upon motion of the director or upon application of an interested employer, the director may reconsider a penalty imposed under ORS 657B.910 irrespective of whether it has become final:
 - (a) Such reconsideration shall be restricted to penalties resulting from clerical errors or errors of computation and may include a new decision upon any grounds or issues not previously ruled upon or new facts not previously known to the director;
 - (b) A new decision issued after reconsideration shall be subject to hearing and judicial review in accordance with this rule.
- (7) A request for waiver of the penalty for good cause must be in writing. The date of any request for waiver under this rule shall be:
 - (a) The postmarked date on the request, if mailed;
 - (b) The date specified in OAR 471-070-0850, if electronically filed; or
 - (c) In the absence of a postmark, submittal date or machine imprinted date, the most probable date of mailing as determined by the director.
- (8) The employees listed in OAR 471-070-0550 may act on behalf of the director for the purposes of sections (1), (2) and

(3) of this rule.

RULE TITLE: Good Cause for Failure to File Reports or Pay Contributions

NOTICE FILED DATE: 10/29/2021

RULE SUMMARY: Clarifies when the Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance (PFMLI) Division will find an employer had "good cause" for failure to file combined payroll reports or pay PFMLI contributions. The employment department may consider all circumstances when determining good cause, but shall require, at a minimum, that the employer gave notice to the department, they filed the required report within seven days of the date determined by the department, they made a diligent effort to remove the cause of the delay and prevent its recurrence, and provided documentation if the delay was due to criminal activity. The rule clarifies that lack of funds on the part of the employer shall not constitute good cause.

RULE TEXT:

(1) As used in ORS 657B.910 and 657B.920 and OAR 471-070-8520, good cause for failure to file all required reports or to pay all contributions due will be found when the employer establishes, by satisfactory evidence, that factors or circumstances beyond the employer's reasonable control caused the delay in filing the required report or paying the contribution due.

(2) In determining good cause under section (1) of this rule, the director may consider all circumstances, but shall require at a minimum, that the employer:

(a) Prior to the date the report or contributions were due, gave notice to the department, when reasonably possible, of the factors or circumstances which ultimately caused the delay;

(b) Filed the required report or paid the contributions due within seven days after the date determined by the director to be the date the factors or circumstances causing the delay ceased to exist;

(c) Made a diligent effort to remove the cause of the delay and to prevent its recurrence; and

(d) Provided an official police report, or other documentation acceptable to the director or an authorized representative, that was made within 20 days of a criminal act, or discovery of the act, if the delay was due to a criminal act by any party.

(3) In applying sections (1) and (2) of this rule, a lack of funds on the part of the employer shall not constitute good cause.

(4) In applying sections (1) and (2) of this rule, failure to notify the department of an updated mailing address shall not constitute good cause.
