WorkSource Oregon Invites Job Seekers to “Your Career, Your Week” Job Fair in Eugene

EUGENE, Ore. — WorkSource Oregon invites job seekers to attend a weeklong job fair at its Eugene location. “Your Career, Your Week” runs from 1-5 p.m. Monday, March 30, through Friday, April 3, 2026. Each day focuses on a different industry, with employer partners on hand to talk about career pathways, training opportunities, and current job openings in a variety of sectors.

- Monday, March 30: Health care and social services
- Tuesday, March 31: Manufacturing and skilled trades
- Wednesday, April 1: Technology and innovation
- Thursday, April 2: Education, government and nonprofit
- Friday, April 3: Retail, logistics and distribution

The event is offered at no cost to the public. Advance registration is encouraged but not required. Job seekers are asked to bring their resumes. For more information about the in-demand careers across these sectors, they can visit QualityInfo.org to explore the skills and career pathways for Oregon’s growing industries and occupations.

“This is a great opportunity for people to learn about a variety of career options in key sectors of Oregon’s economy and connect directly with hiring employers,” said Jim Pfarrer, director of Workforce Operations with the Oregon Employment Department. “Job seekers should come prepared to make a strong impression and ready to talk about their strengths and experience.”

WorkSource staff will also be on site to offer resources for career exploration, as well as resume and interview guidance.

“WorkSource Oregon Lane is pleased to bring this exciting multiday event to job seekers in the Eugene area,” said Supervisor Joseph Land. “We encourage the public to take advantage of this opportunity to speak directly with our employer partners and learn more about the breadth of career options in our region. This is just one example of the many services we offer at no cost to help people find a job or get the training they need to be successful.”

The Oregon Employment Department and WorkSource Oregon are proud to partner with businesses and employers across the state in finding qualified employees.
