Mobile WorkSource Oregon Centers

Three new mobile WorkSource Oregon centers now bring career support directly to job seekers in rural communities across Oregon. Job seekers can check the public schedule for regular stops in rural communities across Central, Southern, and Western Oregon, including Grand Ronde.

These mobile centers are vans equipped with workstations, computers, and secure internet access. WorkSource Oregon staff drive the vans to communities that do not have a brick-and-mortar WorkSource Oregon center nearby. They provide personalized career support, help finding job and training opportunities, and referrals to benefits programs. Services are offered at no cost to customers, and no appointments are required.
