- All job seekers: 12:30 to 4:30 p.m. daily

WHERE: 2510 Oakmont Way (south parking lot), Eugene, OR 97401

EUGENE, Ore. — WorkSource Oregon will host a weeklong job fair marathon at its Eugene location Oct. 26–30. Veterans and eligible spouses will receive priority of service each day from noon to 12:30 p.m. The job fair is open to all job seekers daily from 12:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Job seekers can meet local employers, explore entry-level positions, and learn about career pathways in Lane County. Each day will focus on a different industry:

- Monday, Oct. 26: Food, leisure, and hospitality
- Tuesday, Oct. 27: Distribution and retail
- Wednesday, Oct. 28: Manufacturing and production
- Thursday, Oct. 29: Government, education, and non-profit
- Friday, Oct. 30: Health care and social services

“Whether you’re launching a new career or taking the next step in your professional journey, our job fair marathon is a great place to start,” said Jim Pfarrer, Workforce Operations director for the Oregon Employment Department. “This event gives you a real advantage — the chance to learn what local employers value, make meaningful connections, share your resume, and even explore on-the-spot interview opportunities. We encourage everyone to come ready to engage, ask questions, collect contacts, and confidently show employers what you bring to the table."

The event is free and open to the public. Job seekers are encouraged to register in advance. Members of the media are welcome to attend.
