SECTION 2. PROGRAM AND POSITION INFORMATION

a. Describe the program in which this position exists. Include program purpose, who's affected, size, and scope. Include relationship to agency mission.

The Oregon Department of Energy's vision is to lead Oregon to a safe, equitable, clean, and sustainable future. ODOE helps Oregonians make informed decisions and maintain a resilient and affordable energy system. We advance solutions to shape an equitable clean energy transition, protect the environment and public health, and responsibly balance energy needs and impacts for current and future generations.

ODOE helps Oregonians improve the energy efficiency of their homes, provides policy expertise to prepare for Oregon's future energy needs, staffs the Energy Facility Siting Council, provides technical and financial assistance to encourage investments in energy efficiency and renewable energy resources, represents Oregon's interests in the cleanup of the Hanford nuclear site, and ensures state preparedness to respond to energy-related emergencies. ODOE employs approximately 123 employees and is funded with revenue from more than 30 sources, including $55.6 million in general funds, $108.3 million in other funds, $9.3 million in federal funds, $1.4 million in lottery funds debt service, and $29.4 million in non-limited loan program and debt service funds.

The Central Services Division is responsible for the critical operations that ensure the agency functions effectively, efficiently, in support of its mission and in compliance with state and federal requirements. This includes financial management such as budgeting, accounting, payroll, procurement, contracting, and federal grants administration, to ensure fiscal integrity and resource stewardship. The division also oversees information technology and database management, providing secure, innovative, reliable systems that support agency operations. Facilities and records management, risk management, and employee safety functions ensure a safe, organized and compliant workplace. Additionally, the division manages employee services, including strategic workforce planning, recruitment, classification and compensation, employee relations, leave administration, training, wellness programs, and personnel action processing.

- b. Describe the primary purpose of this position, and how it functions within this program. Complete this statement. The primary purpose of this position is to:

Serve as the agency's Information Technology Manager, providing strategic leadership for all information technology services, resources, and staff. The position establishes and executes short- and long-range IT strategies aligned with statewide direction to ensure secure, reliable, and efficient technology operations. It functions within the program by guiding technology priorities, developing and supporting a high-performing IT team, and collaborating with agency leadership to advance mission-critical objectives.

SECTION 4. WORKING CONDITIONS

Describe any on-going working conditions. Include any physical, sensory, and environmental demands. State the frequency of exposure to these conditions.

The position is primarily office-based in an open landscape with cubicles and potential audible distractions. It requires extended periods of sitting, standing, using a keyboard, performing computer-based work, and using a cell phone. Work may involve lifting or carrying objects up to 15 pounds, bending, crouching, reaching overhead, and transporting oneself throughout the office or to offsite locations. The position frequently requires reading, writing, and preparing documents that demand concentration, attention to detail, and strong written and verbal communication skills. The work environment involves daily use of electronic, audio-visual, and computer equipment. The role may involve exposure to stressful situations, urgent or critical requests, and interaction with challenging or hostile individuals. Work assignments may include multitasking under strict deadlines, changing priorities, and short timelines, and may require flexibility, adaptability, and independent judgment within established guidelines. This position may require extended hours during legislative sessions, short-term project deadlines, or other high-priority agency needs, as well as occasional travel, including overnight trips. The employee is expected to work a regular 40-hour schedule, Monday through Friday, with the possibility of scheduled or unscheduled weekend work or hours outside of normal business hours.

SECTION 5. GUIDELINES

a. List any established guidelines used in this position, such as state or federal laws or regulations, policies, manuals, or desk procedures.

SECTION 7. POSITION RELATED DECISION MAKING

Describe the typical decisions of this position. Explain the direct effect of these decisions.

The incumbent makes strategic and operational decisions regarding the planning, design, implementation, and management of the agency's information technology systems and services. This includes setting IT priorities, allocating IT staff and technology resources, approving system architecture, and guiding project execution to ensure alignment with agency goals and statewide IT direction. Decisions also involve data governance, cybersecurity, compliance with federal and state regulations, and vendor/contract management.

Reporting to the Chief Operations and People Officer, the position directs the IT section and collaborates with executive leadership to ensure IT initiatives support agency strategy, operational objectives, and workforce planning. Decisions directly affect the availability, reliability, security, and integrity of agency data and IT systems, influencing operational efficiency, service quality, and the agency's responsiveness to internal and external partners. They shape the effectiveness of IT staff and teams, determine the success of major projects and technology initiatives, and have long-term consequences for the agency's ability to achieve its mission and strategic objectives.
