Why give at work?

When you give through EarthShare Oregon, you are caring for the everyday privileges we all count on for good health and our quality of life. EarthShare nonprofit members protect these everyday privileges — and so do you when you participate with us.

With EarthShare Oregon you can have confidence that you will make the greatest impact for our environment. Because our nonprofit partners represent nearly every environmental issue, your support is an investment that helps advance the most important priorities. Support what matters to you by donating through your workplace giving campaign. Don't have EarthShare where you work? Get in touch and we can help introduce our program to your employer. Donor Impact

- 2.2mil pounds of electronics, 17,293 tires, 950 appliances, and 21,434 pounds of hazardous household waste from local communities across Oregon were collected and properly disposed of.
- 10,000 linear feet of stream was restored in the Sandy River Basin, helping endangered fish with habitat structures and new access to half an acre of wetland habitat and side channels.
- 1,000 Oregon residents were asked to take a pesticide-free pledge and were provided with resources through the Pesticide-Free Neighborhoods project.
- 160 acres of land were purchased from the McKenzie River School District for preservation, with proceeds of the sale used to fund scholarships for students living in rural areas.
- 17 early-career ecologists and one graduate student received training to help ensure the future conservation of native species and habitats in Oregon.

These are just a few examples of the impact made possible by our supporters. Your donation helps preserve more land and wildlife, plant more trees, educate the next generation of environmental stewards, build resilient communities, and so much more!

We can create even more impact together!
