

OGIC Exercise Results Summary

OUTCOMES

Consistent organizational and data structures/models

Governance operational; stewardship defined and operational

Framework data complete, reliable, accurate, current, and accessible

Data can automatically be shared; reports/dashboards

Centralized data repository for authoritative data

Trained staff in place where needed

Authoritative data is trusted by all public bodies

Integrate authoritative data into decision making

Consistent government services across state

TRACKING INDICATORS

Funding sufficient to sustain efforts

Data gaps shrinking

Number of complete data layers; quality level

EMS response times improved

Decision makers accepting funds; using funds properly

Expertise available where needed

Improved asset management

Improved natural resource management