

To Whom This May Concern,

I am extremely disappointed in the decision to reject the UO'S tuition plan. As a full time student, who is entering the Family and Human Services program at UO in the fall, your decision has already greatly impacted the quality of the program.

I am paying a lot in tuition to attend the UO, I do not get enough financial aid to help, and now I worry about the ever increasing tuition costs each year. I am a resident of Oregon, and I am unable to work full-time while I am in school, and I do not receive enough financial aid to cover what I need. I have to choose between eating, and paying housing costs. This decision you have made is going to make things worse. The University will have to pass on the lack of funding to the students, which will increase tuition even more.

The Family and Human Services department has had to make large cuts in the program, and unfortunately we have lost several excellent professors, as well as crucial programs.

I'm urging you to reconsider your decision. You do not realize the terrible impact you are having on my education, and financial situation while I am trying to pay for school.

Please think about your kids, grandkids, etc, would you subject them to the same poverty that you are subjecting me to? Would you want them to have to decide between food, and housing? I have to skip meals altogether, or decide on the one meal I will eat for the day. Because of your decision, it will make things far worse.

I implore you.

Thank you and best regards,

Rebekah Greig

University of Oregon student