RULE TITLE: Definitions

NOTICE FILED DATE: 10/22/2018

RULE SUMMARY: This rule establishes an educational attainment goal for Oregon's adult, working-age population.

RULE TEXT:

- (1) For this purposes of this rule, "adult" means a person age 25 to 64.
- (2) The educational attainment goal for adult Oregonians who are not currently enrolled in a kindergarten through grade 12 school, an institution of higher education or another post-secondary training program is: "300,000 adult Oregonians will earn a new postsecondary degree, certificate, or credential of value by 2030."
- (3) In addition to increasing the total number of adult Oregonians with new credentials, the goal is to reduce achievement gaps by half among underrepresented racial/ethnic minority, low-income and rural Oregonians by 2030.
