*Supplemental Information:

Question (j) refers to the number of students and employees who experienced sexual misconduct at any location. This number includes allegations that met the definition of prohibited conduct under our policy, as well as those that did not. Some reports were not followed by investigations, either at the request of the Complainant or because the allegations did not meet the definition of prohibited conduct under our policy and therefore fell outside of the University's jurisdiction.

(L)	Narrative discussion
	GFU is extending our educational programming to include a year-round emphasis on sexual assault prevention. Previously, these programs were exclusively offered in April for Sexual Assault Awareness Month, but this year our campus is offering seminars and educational opportunities for staff and students each month. It is our hope that by offering ongoing opportunities, our students and staff will feel connected to our care team, and feel confident about resources that are available on campus.
