	SWOCC uses Maxient to collect and store reports of sexual misconduct and all other concerns or policy violations: https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?SouthwesternOregonCC. SWOCC partners with The Safe Project (https://thesafeproject.net/) to have a campus advocate on-campus several days a week that can serve as a private and confidential resources for students and staff impacted by this report's topic. The mission of The SAFE Project is to create a society where domestic violence and sexual assault are not tolerated; to promote a culture that respects, supports, and empowers survivors while holding abusers accountable.

	SWOCC also partnered with C.L. Lindsey this past year to present to students, faculty, and staff about this report's topic. C.L. Lindsay III is one of the nation's leading experts in student discipline and higher education law. With over 20 years of experience, he has dedicated his career to working with college students, teaching them about their legal rights and responsibilities. His dynamic approach to legal education addresses the evolving challenges students face in the digital age, providing them with the tools and knowledge to protect themselves and make informed decisions. For the 2025/2026 Academic Year, SWOCC partnered with M.i. Productions to present their program "The C-Word: Consent" (https://cwordconsent.com/) to our Faculty, Staff, and 1st year/Housing students. This presentation is an educational, highly interactive, Title IX-compliant program brought to you by the creators of America's No. 1 alcohol awareness program, A Shot of Reality. This program uses a combination of audience interaction, improv exercises, and thoroughly researched information to break down walls and have a frank, difficult, but needed conversation about sex. This program covers a wide range of topics that include bystander intervention, effective boundary setting, online behavior, and survivor resources. This highly engaging and entertaining program is an amazing resource for college students and faculty.
