**In one instance, it was unknown if a law enforcement investigation was initiated. The College was not contacted by law enforcement for either report, nor did the college contact law enforcement on behalf of the student(s). In another instance, the college was notified by the student(s) that law enforcement was contacted, but not further information was known after that notification.

***In one report, the respondent individual was unknown.

****To ensure anonymity of the student, one student initially reported experiencing an indicator within the definition of sexual misconduct, however, after multiple documented attempts by staff, the student declined to request an informal or formal investigation after receiving supportive measures.
