	Employees	2

¹ The institution interprets that “allegation” and “report” are used interchangeably per ORS 350.345. Allegation/report, for the purposes of this document, is understood to mean any information provided to the Title IX Coordinator which could have been submitted directly by the complainant, by third parties with limited knowledge, or anonymously. Some of this information may not have been clarified if specific circumstances prevented the institution from gathering additional information.

e.	The number of students and employees at the institution who, during the previous academic year, were investigated, but found not responsible for having violated the institution's policies prohibiting sexual misconduct.
	Students	0
	Employees	0

f.	The number of students at the institution who, during the previous academic year, requested supportive measures .	14
----	--	----

This number includes supportive measure requests that were made directly to the Title IX Office or that were relayed to the Title IX Office by other campus offices. Supportive measures requests that were made and granted directly from individuals (e.g. extensions requested to an individual faculty) may not be reflected in this number.

g.	The number of supportive measures requested by each student described in paragraph (f) above.
	One supportive measure provided	12
	Two supportive measures provided	1
	Three supportive measures provided	1

This number includes supportive measure requests that were made directly to the Title IX Office or that were relayed to the Title IX Office by other campus offices. Supportive measures requests that were made and granted directly from individuals (e.g. extensions requested to an individual faculty) may not be reflected in this number.

h.	The number of supportive measures granted to each student described in paragraph (f) above.
	One supportive measure provided	12
	Two supportive measures provided	1
	Three supportive measures provided	1

This number includes supportive measure requests that were made directly to the Title IX Office or that were relayed to the Title IX Office by other campus offices. Supportive measures requests that were made and granted directly from individuals (e.g. extensions requested to an individual faculty) may not be reflected in this number.

i.	The number of students during the previous academic year who took a leave of absence, transferred to a different institution of higher education or withdrew from the institution of higher education.
