

Sexual Misconduct Climate Survey Summary Report

To help identify the questions, a code consisting of capital letters, numbers, and symbols) is assigned to each question (for example: EXP2B#, EXPSKIP). (The questions are numbered in the PDF of the survey provided by HECC, but these numbers are not seen by the student in the online survey.) In this document, each question is referred to by its number in the PDF and by the code:

In this report, “n” is used to indicate the number of students who select a particular response to a question, and “N” is used to indicate the total number of students that answered that question. This fillable PDF will automatically fill in the percentage of students that selected a particular response.

To help protect the confidentiality of students responding to the survey, small response numbers should be masked as follows:

- Section 1 asks questions about demographic identities.
 - For questions in Section 1, if fewer than 10 students selected a response, enter “<10” for n; if fewer than 10 students answered the question, enter “<10” for N. The table will display “NR” (not reported) for the percentage.
- Section 2 asks questions about experiences of different types of sexual misconduct. Sections 3-4 ask about disclosures and impacts of sexual misconduct. Section 5 asks about attitudes toward sexual misconduct, and beliefs and knowledge about their school’s responses to sexual misconduct.
 - For questions in Sections 2-5, if fewer than 5 students selected a response, enter “<5” for n; if fewer than 5 students answered the question, enter “<5” for N. The table will display “NR” (not reported) for the percentage.

To help protect the confidentiality of students responding to the survey, responses to some questions are omitted from this report. These include the following:

- Question 3 (REALD1): counts and text responses to racial or ethnic identity detail questions are omitted from the report.
- Question 4 (PRIMID): if the respondent reported a primary racial or ethnic identity, it is omitted from the report.
