

WR 121Z Composition I

The following provides a summary of the 2022 Recommendation Report for the CCN Writing Subcommittee. Transfer Council recommends that due to changes in course information under OAR 715-025-0065 through 0115, colleges and universities should ensure students' academic progress is not disrupted. Courses completed before CCN changes should count toward graduation, even if requirements shift. Holding students harmless means honoring their efforts, supporting them through transitions, and keeping learning—not compliance—the central focus. CCN course information should be adopted as written. For more detailed information on what can be added to the course description and course learning outcomes, see the CCN Revised Framework and for more general information, see CCN Reports & Memos on the Educator Resources—Common Course Numbering webpage.

Course Description:

WR 121Z engages students in the study and practice of critical thinking, reading, and writing. The course focuses on analyzing and composing across varied rhetorical situations and in multiple genres. Students will apply key rhetorical concepts flexibly and collaboratively throughout their writing and inquiry processes.

Course Learning Outcomes:

1. Apply rhetorical concepts through analyzing and composing a variety of texts.
2. Engage texts critically, ethically, and strategically to support writing goals.

3. Develop flexible composing, revising, and editing strategies for a variety of purposes, audiences, writing situations, and genres.
4. Reflect on knowledge and skills developed in this course and their potential applications in other writing contexts.

Review Cycle:

We propose that the annual review cycle of these courses have a twofold purpose:

1. to review the transfer effectiveness of the courses, and,
2. to gather information about challenges, concerns, changes needed from the 24 two and four-year schools in the state.

We propose that this review take place in winter term following the OWEAC meeting scheduled, so as to leverage our existing state committee that often gathers this exact kind of data and has representation from most of the schools in the state.

Every third year, we recommend a deeper review of the alignment of these courses; this is the only time that the subcommittee will consider a vote to modify the aligned content of the course, using the previous two years of data. The choice in these third-year reviews will be to either affirm our existing alignment decisions or to revise a particular aspect to keep our curriculum based on the data gathered from the previous two years.

We advise that as many members of the original subcommittee be invited to participate in these discussions as historical memory and original context will be useful in informing future decisions.
