Rule: Housing in Unincorporated Communities

Comment: This rulemaking is not "needed"; the 'statement of need' , stating "The rules are needed as a contribution to the work of the State Housing Interagency Partnership (SHIP). . . " is far far removed from the process thus far; SHIP "work" has not even been presented to the RAC, which itself is problematic in that it is not representative of persons living and working in unincorporated communities proposed for growth and expansion. The 'SHIP work' is a black hole at this point. No data, reports, or any other information about or relating to any of the unincorporated communities has been provided; a few cherry picked communities have been held up as examples of why this idea has merit, however a few cherry picked projects is far from informative, considering how many communities this rulemaking could and will likely affect.
