Rule: Housing in Unincorporated Communities

Comment: Because no justification is given for this rulemaking, and because no facts are provided about unincorporated areas' housing needs and infrastructure and environmental resources, the LCDC should pause this rulemaking. Go and gather basic data about the status of existing unincorporated communities and make a case for this rule-making so the public can render informed decisions. R-focus attention on the housing rural workers actually need and how to increase housing opportunities for those who live and work in these rural areas.
