

OrDocs Classification

The OrDocs classification scheme is:

- organized by state agency
- subdivided, if necessary, by the division/section/etc. within the agency
- further divided (decimally) by type of publication
- cuttered by the first significant word in the title

Basic organization by agency, further subdivided by divisions, etc. within the agency

OR Con	Oregon. Dept. of Consumer and Business Services
OR Con/Oc1	Oregon. Occupational Safety and Health Division
OR HR	Oregon. Dept. of Human Services
OR HR/H34	Oregon. Health Division

Subdivided decimally by type of publication(based loosely on the SuDoc classification scheme):

- .1 annual, biennial, and financial reports
- .2 general monographs
- .3 general serials
- .4 series
- .5 ephemeral; e.g., brochures, posters
- .6 laws, administrative rules
- .7 statistical reports (monographic or serial)
- .8 directories, handbooks, manuals, guides, bibliographies, maps
- .9 minutes, conference proceedings, testimony

Cuttered by the first significant word in the title (.2-.3, .5-.9), or in the title of the series (.4) (Note:.1 is not cuttered) Examples:

OR Ene.1	Annual report of the Oregon Office of Energy
OR Ene.1/2	Annual financial report of the Office of Energy
OR Li.2P96	Public library service in Oregon (a monograph issued by the State Library)
Or Li.3L56/2	Letter to libraries online (an electronic periodical issued by the State Library)

- OR GM.40i5:5 Prospects for natural gas production in the Upper Nehalem River basin (no.5 in the series: Oil and gas investigations, issued by the Oregon Dept. of Geology and Mineral Industries)
- OR PU/2.6M85 Oregon laws relating to motor carriers (issued by Public Utility Commission)
- OR Con/In3.7P42 Permanent total disabilities in the Oregon workers' compensation system (a primarily statistical annual publication issued by the Oregon Dept. of Consumer and Business Services, Information Management Division, Research and Analysis Section)
- OR HR/H34.8H64 State of Oregon HIV/AIDS resource guide (issued by the Oregon. HIV Program)