- BAGG, Board Member.
- This matter is before the Board on the motion of Intervenor
- Wilfred R. Gerttula. Intervenor asks that we dismiss the
- 4 proceeding on the ground this Board has no jurisdiction to hear
- s petitioner's complaints. The petition for review filed herein
- 6 challenges a grant of a subdivision by the Lincoln County Board
- 7 of Commissioners on grounds that the subdivision violates Goals
- g 2, 5, 7 and 17. The Land Conservation and Development
- o Commission acknowledged the Lincoln County Comprehensive Plan
- on December 21, 1982. Intervenor claims that an exceptions
- paper drawn to facilitate this department was reviewed by the
- commission as part of the acknowledgment proceeding. As the
- comprehensive plan, implementing ordinances and the exception
- 14 for this property have been acknowledged by the commission,
- there can be no review by this Board of any challenge to
- 16 actions taken under the acknowledged plan.
- 17 Petitioner Jones argues that the subdivision violates
- 18 portions of Lincoln County ordinances controlling development
- 19 in hazardous areas and development in areas of historical and
- 20 archeological importance. Because these issues are addressed
- 21 in Lincoln County Ordinance Sections 13.030 and 13.040,
- 22 Petitioner Jones argues the Board retains jurisdiction.
- The petition for review alleges violations of statewide
- 24 planning goals. Nowhere in the petition is there mentioned any
- 25 violation of the Lincoln County plan or implementing
- 26 ordinances. Because the county's adherence to statewide proceeding and found adequate, we do not believe we have the power to review actions taken under the plan for compliance with the goals. To do so would put the Board in the position of second guessing an acknowledgment, and we do not believe we have the power to either second guess the acknowledgment or consider whether the commission properly followed its own goals. Byrd v Stringer, 60 Or App 1 (1982), rev accepted;

   Fujimoto v Land Use Board of Appeals, 52 Or App 875 (1981);
   Cole v Deschutes County, 5 or LUBA 156 (1982).
       Because the issues in this case have been rendered moot by 11
   the acknowledgment of the Lincoln plan and implementing 12
   ordinances of Janury 18, 1983, this appeal is dismissed.

INTEROFFICE MEMO

TO:

MEMBERS OF THE LAND CONSERVATION DATE:

AND DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION

FROM:

THE LAND USE BOARD OF APPEALS

JONES V LINCOLN COUNTY

SUBJECT:

LUBA No. 82-099

Enclosed for your review is the Board's proposed opinion and order in the above captioned appeal.

This case is about a subdivision granted by the Lincoln County Board of Commissioners. After the grant of the subdivision, the Land Conservation and Development Commission acknowledged the Lincoln County Comprehensive Plan. Petitioner's challenges are based only on statewide planning goals. Because of the acknowledgment, we view the issues in this case to be moot, and we have dismissed the appeal.

The Board is of the opinion that oral argument will not assist the commission in its understanding or review of the statewide goal issues involved in this appeal. Therefore, the Board recommends that oral argument before the commission not be allowed.
