DOJ Public Meetings Manual: (In relevant part see PDF Page 324)

https://www.doj.state.or.us/wpcontent/uploads/2019/07/public_records_and_meetings_manual.pdf

The presiding officer has inherent authority to keep order and to impose any reasonable restrictions necessary for the efficient and orderly conduct of a meeting. If public participation is to be a part of the meeting, the presiding officer may regulate the order and length of appearances and limit appearances to presentations of relevant points. Any person who fails to comply with reasonable rules of conduct or who causes a disturbance may be asked or required to leave, and upon failure to do so becomes a trespasser.

The Board is not required, nor do the Board members anticipate engaging in discussion with participants providing comment.
