

If you are providing chronic or acute pain management here are some useful links. Remember just because something is within your scope of practice that does not mean you must utilize it. *

Updated August 22, 2016

Community guidelines:

2016-May: New links to visit

Latest CDC Guidelines:

<http://www.cdc.gov/mmwr/volumes/65/rr/rr6501e1.htm>

Oregon Pain Guidance:

http://www.southernoregonopioidmanagement.org/app/content/uploads/2014/04/OPG_Guidelines.pdf

OHSU Opioid Guidelines:

<http://www.ohsu.edu/gim/epiclinks/opioidresources/opioidguidelines.htm>

Washington State Agency Medical Directors Group:

<http://www.agencymeddirectors.wa.gov/Files/OpioidConference/2015AMDGOpioidGuideline.pdf>

Tools and other resources:

Prescription Opioid Misuse Risk Assessment Tools:

<http://www.opioidrisk.com/node/774>

MED Opiate Calculator:

<http://agencymeddirectors.wa.gov/mobile.html>

Oregon Prescription Drug Monitoring Program:

<http://www.orpdmp.com/>

Providers' Clinical Support System

<http://pcss-o.org/>

Oregon Medical Association Information

<http://www.theoma.org/media/public-health-fact-sheets/opioids>

Physicians for Responsible Opioid Prescribing:

<http://www.supportprop.org/>

Oregon Pain Management Commission

<http://www.oregon.gov/oha/ohpr/pmc/pages/index.aspx>

PainEdu Website with ongoing treatment and education

<https://www.painedu.org/>

Book: Responsible Opioid Prescribing: A Clinician's Guide

<http://www.fsmb.org/books>

* If you know of a link that might be useful, please forward it to the attention of Anne Walsh, at obnm.info@state.or.us or mail it to OBNM, 800 NE Oregon Street Suite 407, Portland OR 97232